Our purposes: when leaving Mormonism, people often find that they no longer have community or support. Our goal is to provide support for each other and to build community. So, whether you are a member, or left the church recently, or have been out for years, or were never Mormon but are looking for community, come and socialize with us and share your story.

We assist anyone wishing to resign their Church membership or post their own Exit Statement. Recommend www.wasmormon.org.

2026-10-11 Invitation: Dereliction of Duty

The Indictment

The indictment is simple. Two of the highest leaders of the Church, Dallin H. Oaks and Todd Christofferson, are attorneys. Their legal training makes failure to understand the evidence impossible, and their own actions reveal what they know. From the Gospel Topics Essays to their quiet revisions of the Book of Mormon, to President Russell M. Nelson's public demonstration (0:51) of Joseph Smith's "seer stone in the hat," they have disclosed enough for us to recognize that they know Smith's foundational claims cannot be sustained.[1] Since Smith dictated the entire BofM to his scribes with his face buried in a hat, why did he think he had to run the Golden Plates Schrade? It is a tell. If the Book of Mormon (BofM) is not historical, then the Church is founded on a lie.

Any honest Aaronic Priesthood teenager could connect those dots. Yet these men, armed with superior knowledge and authority, have chosen silence, half-truths, and cosmetic disclosure. That is not prudence; it is negligence, a knowing failure of duty to act. When silence maintains a falsehood, silence itself becomes deceit. This is the textbook definition of dereliction of duty.
